Mr. John Manamela

Meet our CEO & founder

PIANIST // ACCOMPANIST // PIANO TUTOR // MUSIC EDUCATOR // MUSIC ARRANGER

Commencing a musical journey at the age of 15, John Manamela discovered a profound passion for the piano that would profoundly influence his life. Academic pursuits led him to the Tshwane University of Technology in Pretoria, where he earned his Diploma in Music.

Over two decades, John has been deeply immersed in the realm of choral music, dedicating himself to the role of accompanist with unwavering commitment. This extensive experience not only refined his skills but also cultivated a profound appreciation for the nuanced art of musical collaboration.

With over 20 years as an accompanist and solo artist, John has shared his musical talents across diverse settings, from intimate private gatherings like weddings and corporate functions to prestigious venues such as Sun City Resort, where he held the esteemed position of a full-time resident solo pianist for seven years.

As a music educator, John Manamela has imparted knowledge at both primary and high school levels, shaping the musical journeys of budding talents.

His influence extends beyond borders, having served as an accompanist in countries like Botswana, Lesotho, and Eswatini.

Today, as a piano tutor, John Manamela continues to share the love for music, offering lessons both online and in person, ensuring that the joy of playing the piano is accessible to all.

Join John Manamela at AfriScore Global, where decades-long passion for music, coupled with diverse experiences, converges to create a platform that celebrates and disseminates the rich tapestry of African musical heritage.
